

TMG Spotlight

Brandon Johnston '00

Manager – Operations Quality Management & Training, Nuclear Reactor

*“ There is no problem so bad that you can't make it worse.
– Chris Hadfield*

Background Experience

- Honours B.Sc. In Biochemistry at McMaster (class of '00)
- Over 14 years experience in Quality Assurance, Regulatory Affairs, and Training; 3 years at the McMaster Nuclear Reactor
- Recognized as a subject matter expert in Management Systems, Quality Audits, Root Cause Analysis

Current Activities & Projects

- Developing training program for Reactor Supervisors using Systematic Approach to Training
- Responsible for the MNR Management System, Internal Audit Program, Corrective Action Process, Operating Experience Process, Continuing Training Requirements, Nuclear Public Information Program
- TMG Committee member, CSA Management System Standard Technical Committee member

Career Accomplishments

- ASQ Certified Quality Auditor
- Significantly improved MNR Management System & Training areas resulting in a positive assessment by the Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission
- Led several successful root cause investigation teams
- Raised $20,000 for the Ride to Conquer Cancer