

McMaster employees feel Footloose

On Sunday, February 20, the McMaster Employee Spirit Society (M.E.S.S.!) hosted 250 employees, retirees and their families for the 8th annual M.E.S.S.! Theatre event.

Held at the Westside Concert theatre, Sunday's matinee performance featured the McMaster Musical Theatre's production of Footloose was reserved solely for M.E.S.S.! participants. Those who attended received complimentary tickets to the show, draw prizes, and food & refreshments at intermission.

This musical is a lively adaptation of the 1984 film starring Kevin Bacon and John Lithgow. One participant commented,

The performance was amazing!! The performance itself was excellent. The music and the band were awesome. The stage crew, set people, lights and everything included all were fabulous! Great job! Can't wait for the next performance.

If you missed this event, information on next year's event will be available online in early January. Visit www.workingatmcmaster.ca/mess for more details.

More to explore:

- McMaster Employee Spirit Society (M.E.S.S.!)
<http://www.workingatmcmaster.ca/mess/>
- McMaster Musical Theatre <http://www.mcmastermusicaltheatre.com/fset.htm>