

TMG Spotlight

Liz Way '00

Organizational Change Management Consultant, Mosaic,
Human Resources Services

“Leadership is action, not position

– Donald H. McGannon

Background Experience

- Over 14 years experience in education, wellness and management fields ; six at McMaster
- Recognized as a Moodle and wellness education expert
- Freelance writer (Op Eds, news, food and fashion)

Current Activities & Projects

- Currently leading the Learning Management Systems team for Mosaic implementations
- Responsible for developing and deploying the new online system for all streams
- Training logistics, communications support and training materials

Career Accomplishments

- International physical education presenter and author of two books
- Developed corporate wellness program for international engineering company
- Developed and founded Jump Rope for Heart programs in Hong Kong and Bermuda